Plaintiff: PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO. Defendant: KOBE BEAN BRYANT.
	Case Number: 03 CR 204 Div.: R
ORDER RE: Joint Production of Proposed Redacted Copy of July 21-22 Transcripts

This matter comes before the Court as a result of the opinion rendered on July 26, 2004 by Justice Breyer of the United States Supreme Court in the matter of The Associated Press, et. al. v. District Court for the Fifth Judicial District of Colorado, Case No. 04A78. A copy of this opinion is attached to this entry. In order for this Court to timely comply with the guidelines provided within said opinion, the Court hereby ORDERS as follows:

- (1) Any available members of the prosecution and defense teams shall confer immediately upon receiving notice of this entry;
- (2) When they confer, counsel for the prosecution and defense shall devise a plan for collaborating to jointly produce one proposed redacted copy of the in camera portions of the July 21-22 hearing transcript in this matter;
- (3) The redaction shall be guided by Justice Breyer's opinion as well as this Court's sealed Order Re: Defendant's Motion to Admit Evidence Pursuant to C.R.S. § 18-3-407 and People's Motions in Limine #5 and #7; and

(4) Counsel for the prosecution and defense shall submit the proposed redacted copy, along with their explanation why any such portions should remain confidential, and the foregoing shall be submitted to the Court, under seal, on or before 5:00p.m. on July 27, 2004.

DATED: July 27, 2004

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

No. 04A78

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, ET AL, v. DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF COLORADO

ON APPLICATION FOR STAY

[July 26, 2004]

JUSTICE BREYER, Circuit Justice.

This is an application for a stay of orders of the Colorado State District Court for Eagle County and the Supreme Court of Colorado restricting publication of the contents of transcripts of in camera pretrial proceedings held in a criminal prosecution for sexual assault. The applicants are several major newspaper publishers and media outlets that have been covering the prosecution. They filed their application in this Court on July 21, 2004. Due to a change in circumstances following the submission of their application, I deny the application without prejudice to its being filed again in two days' time (or thereafter), i.e., subsequent to July 28, 2004.

At issue are the transcripts of trial court hearings, held in camera on June 21 and June 22, 2004, to determine the relevance and admissibility of certain evidence pursuant to Colorado's rape shield statute, Colo. Rev. Stat. §18-8-407(2) (2008). The transcripts were mistakenly e-mailed to the applicants by a court reporter of the trial court. Upon realizing its mistake, the trial court issued an order prohibiting publication of the contents of the transcripts and requiring their deletion from the applicants' computers. See Order in People v. Bryant, No. 03-CR-204 (Dist. Ct., Eagle Cty., June 24, 2004). The applicants challenged the order before the Colorado Supreme Court, which agreed with them that the order imposed a prior restraint on speech, but concluded that a more narrowly tailored version of the order would pass constitutional muster. See People v. Bryant, No. 04SA200, <http://www.courts.state.co.us/supct/opinions/2004/04SA200.doc> (July 19, 2004).

Accordingly, the Colorado Supreme Court ordered the trial court to:

"(1) make its rape shield rulings as expeditiously as possible and promptly enter its findings of facts and conclusions of law thereon; (2) determine if some or all portions of the June 21 and June 22 transcripts are relevant and material and, therefore, admissible under the rape shield statute at trial; and (3) enter an appropriate order, which may include releasing to the [applicants] and the public a redacted version of the June 21 and June 22 transcripts that contains those portions that are relevant and material in the case, if any, and maintains the ongoing confidentiality of portions that are irrelevant and immaterial, if any." Id., at 40.

In evaluating the validity of the prior restraint, the Colorado Supreme Court made clear that the Government's "interest of the highest order" in preventing publication applied only to those portions of "the in camera transcripts that are not relevant and material under the rape shield statute." Ibid. Two days after the Colorado Supreme Court issued its opinion, the applicants submitted their application for a stay of the trial court's and the Colorado Supreme Court's orders, directing it to me as

Circuit Justice.

On July 28, the same day that responses to the application were filed in this Court, the Colorado trial court issued its ruling on the admissibility of evidence under the Colorado rape shield statute. See Order re: Defendant's Motion to Admit Evidence Pursuant to C.R.S. §18-3-407 and People's Motions in Limine #5 and #7 in People v. Bryant, No. 08-CR-204 (Dist. Ct., Eagle Cty., July 23, 2004). According to this ruling (which affects all of the hearings held in camera pursuant to the rape shield statute, not just those at issue in this application) the trial court determines that certain evidence . . . is relevant to a material issue(s) in this case . . . and will permit the evidence to be offered at the trial of this matter. The Court determines that certain other evidence . . . is not relevant to any material issue in this case, and therefore may not be offered at the trial of this matter, unless circumstances later warrant.

Id., at 5-6. The ruling goes on to specify the evidence that is relevant and material. To my knowledge, the trial court has not yet made its determination as to whether the transcripts of June 21 and 22, in whole or in part, shall be made public.

My reading of the transcripts leads me to believe that the trial court's determination as to the relevancy of the rape shield material will significantly change the circumstances that have led to this application. As a result of that determination, the trial court may decide to release the transcripts at issue here in their entirety, or to release some portions while redacting others. Their release, I believe, is imminent. I recognize the importance of the constitutional interests at issue. See, e.g., Capital Cities Media, Inc. v. Tole, 468 U. S. 1803, 1804 (1983) (Brennan, J., in chambers); Nebraska Press Assn. v. Stuart, 428 U. S.

4 THE ASSOCIATED PRESS v. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Opinion in Chambers

1327, 1329 (1975). But a brief delay will permit the state courts to clarify, perhaps avoid, the controversy at issue here. See Nebraska Press Assn. v. Stuart, 428 U. S. 1319, 1325 (1975) (Blackmun, J., in chambers).

Consequently, the application is denied without prejudice to the applicants' filing again in two days' time. Should they do so, the respondents shall file a response one day subsequent indicating: (1) (if the trial court has acted) why any redacted portions of the transcripts must remain confidential; or (2) (if the trial court has not acted) which portions of the transcripts they believe, in light of the trial court's admissibility determinations, should remain confidential and why. The applicants shall file their reply, if they wish to file one, one further day later.

The application is denied without prejudice.
